

ABOUT THE CURATORS

Jordan Nelsen- Women & Their Work \(womenandtheirwork.org\)

Jordan Nelsen is an artist and arts administrator in Austin, Texas. As the Gallery Director at Women & Their Work, she works closely with women artists to facilitate experimental and innovative exhibitions, performances, and other programming. She is passionate about providing a platform for women artists across Texas to accelerate their careers. Prior to joining W&TW, Nelsen served as Director of Programming at Big Medium, where she dedicated nearly eight years to serving artists by striving to bring their work to a broad and diverse community. She oversaw over eight major programs, including annual studio tours and gallery exhibitions. Nelsen held a position on the inaugural SXSW Art Advisory Board and has lent her voice to various professional development presentations, including through the City of Austin Cultural Arts Division, the Art Department of the University of Texas at Austin, I Live Here, I Give Here, and others. Nelsen feels most at home when providing access to the arts and generating meaningful conversation around creative practices.

Brittney Williams- Origin\(originstudiohouse.com\)

Brittney Williams is an interior designer, cultural strategist and hospitality curator. She is a Co-Founder of Studio VYB, a full service interior design studio based in Austin, Texas. A desire to engage people through well-designed, inclusive spaces fuels Brittney's work. Brittney's most notable design contributions include Swedish Hill in Austin, TX., Clark's Oyster Bar in Aspen, Co., Joann's Fine Foods in Austin, TX., Outdoor Voices in Los Angeles and several custom luxury residences for high-profile celebrity clients. Brittney majored in Urban Studies under Eugene Lang at The New School in New York City. She is a resident of Austin, Texas.

Chris Burch- Co-Lab Projects

Kyle Evans- dadageek

