

Long Center Business Arts Council

The Long Center's Business Arts Council (BAC) is a collection of Austin businesses who believe that a strong creative sector is a vital component to a healthy, thriving city. Through connection and conversation, our BAC Members directly support programs that serve and propel Austin's iconic cultural arts.

BE PART OF SOMETHING BIGGER

Be on the inside track while supporting what Austin's known for – its bold, eclectic arts scene! With year-round networking events, exclusive invites, and other brand-boosting benefits, a BAC Membership supports the city's creative sector while providing in-the-know opportunities for employee and client engagement. Plus, you'll get unparalleled access to Austin's arts and entertainment industry.

FREE MUSIC ALL SUMMER LONG

Continuing Austin's favorite tradition — free local music! — The Drop-In not only provides can't-miss opportunities for Austinites to catch a performance, but also showcases Austin's talent in every genre. This free series, in partnership with ACL Radio & Sonic Guild, is a place for our BAC Members to experience the VIP treatment while supporting Austin's homegrown talent.

COMMUNITY BUILDING

The Long Center hosts free events and welcomes hundreds of community partners and patrons into our spaces with rental discounts, program support, ticket distributions and more. Our BAC Members help us build community and create meaningful relationships, one connection at a time.
